Stewardship: be a member of the Bishop's Committee

We have 2 members leaving the Bishop's Committee because their 3 year terms are up. They are Elaine Brady (Senior Warden) and Stephanie Bettencourt. Please consider being a member of this important committee. It shapes the present and future of CTL.

Our January, 1st Sunday Special Offering is for the Sabbatical Leave Fund

Donations and pledge payments to support CTL and our various ministries may be given at <https://christthelord.gvtls.com>, or by sending a check to the church. Remember you can always give to charities of your choice at any time.

The "Ark" Birthday/Special Intentions Bank
2023 donations will be given to the Heifer International.

Homebound Communion for CTL members

We have a Eucharistic visitor who will bring the communion elements (bread/wine/juice) and/or also do a service in your home. Please contact Elaine Glimme (510) 859-5317 or ElaineGlimme@comcast.net

Creativity Unlimited takes place every 2nd Saturday of the month in the fellowship room at 2pm at CTL. All are welcome.

The Diocese has made available (for free) an online class on the historical and biblical context of the Israel/Palestine conflict.

New Course on Israel and Palestine available for Churches

If your heart is breaking over the violence and death in the Israel-Palestine conflict and you are wondering, how did we get here? What are the historical and biblical contexts that play a role in this conflict? And what can we do? Then we have a course for you.

Archdeacon Paul Feheley, Partnership Officer for the Middle East for the Episcopal Church, leads anew class at ChurchNext. Available for both Individuals and Groups, Paul offers an insightful primer on the historical and biblical components of the conflict as well as information about the Anglican Communion's ministry in the area. He also provides information about three important ways people of faith can help. Available for free through the Diocese of California portal in the links below. Click here for complete description – but don't use this link for the course. Click here to watch the first episode. For more information contact Amy Cook (amyc@diocal.org).

Please see the announcement below about a free performance here in Pinole. Thank you to Christine Nadeau for making us aware of this event.*

The White Card

By CLAUDIA RANKINE
STAGED READING

Directed by Carlene Coury

The White Card stages a conversation that is both informed and derailed by the black/white American drama. The scenes in this one-act play, for all the characters' disagreements, stalemates, and seeming impassés, explore what happens if one is willing to stay in the room when it is painful to bear the pressure to listen and the obligation to respond.

Friday, January 19 @8 p.m.

Saturday, January 20 @ 8 p.m.

Sunday, January 21 @ 2 p.m.

Performances will be held at Pinole Community Playhouse
