Dream and Dine - Sunday, March 30, after worship we'll have a time for brainstorming new exciting events and new additions for the church. For example, the Little Free Library was an idea that came from the previous Dream and Dine a few years ago. We will have an easel with a large pad of paper located in the narthex; it will be available for all parishioners to add any ideas for the church until Sunday March 30th. After church that day we will read all the ideas, add any new ones and discuss how to proceed. We will also have a potluck lunch (the "dine" part!)

Home needed for a free 8'-ish pine tree: Irina Smirnova, one of our congregation members, must find a new home for her pine tree that is currently residing in a pot on her patio. Irina will even bring it to your home and plant it for you! Call her for more information: 510-517-1533. Please call soon, Irina's HomeOwners' Association is pressing her to get rid of this fine tree!

Communion for homebound CTL members:

We have a Eucharistic visitor who will bring the communion elements (bread/wine/juice) and/or also do a service in your home. Please contact Elaine Glimme (510) 859-5317 or ElaineGlimme@comcast.net

Episcopal Relief & Development Offers Lenten

Meditations - Episcopal Relief & Development has partnered with well-known author Jerusalem Jackson Greer to write daily meditations in celebration of our common life. The meditations will be available in English and Spanish beginning on Ash Wednesday and throughout the 2025 Lenten season. Titling the meditations “A Commonplace Lent,” Greer celebrates the everyday human experience—prayer, worship, grace, love, community and service as well as our relationship to nature. Using monastic wisdom as her starting point, she highlights the divine gifts that come from community. Episcopal Relief & Development invites all to participate in “A Commonplace Lent” by subscribing to daily emails, downloading resources for further study and including the meditations in community prayer, worship and gathering time.

2025 Bishop’s Committee: Please contact a Committee member if you would like to have a specific item addressed at one of the monthly Committee meetings. All congregation members are welcome to attend the monthly meetings, which are held on Zoom. Contact Sandy to get Zoom access information.
